

"In politics stupidity is not a handicap." -Napoleon Bonaparte

I believe, with Jefferson, that the people will square it up it ultimately. But I'm aghast at the ignorance displayed in forums on Yahoo and elsewhere, where sick goons spew tripe. And when I discover such goons are as educated as I, I'm speechless.

And in despair-they're simply not educable, or they at least would begin thinking I can approve of-- lending some little hope to mankind.
